Consecrate to Elevate P1

Scripture: II Tim 2:21

- I separate myself from worldly compromise and all things impure today
- I do not compromise, today I consecrate
- My heart and body are consecrated to God
- Through daily repentance and the washing of the word I am refined as a vessel of honor
- I yield my rights, thoughts and dreams daily to Jesus
- The Holy Spirit purges anything that hinders me today
- Halfhearted religion, lukewarm compromise and split allegiances are forbidden in my life
- By the power of the blood, I walk in undivided devotion today
- I keep my heart guarded and my hands clean
- I choose consecration over culture
- God has set me apart from the world to reveal His glory through me
- I do not exist to fulfill my agenda
- I am an available yielded vessel, yielded to the Spirit
- Not about my skill level, it is about my yielded level
- Because I remain surrendered to His will I am fit for His assignment
- I make myself positioned to respond whenever He calls
- I am never too busy to answer His call
- I am not a spectator in the Kingdom of God
- I am useful for Kingdom work
- I do not resist the Spirit's call to go higher, I am yielded
- My service is to Him, and I have no desire for human applause
- I am not sluggish nor hesitant, I am ready for every good work
- I am ready to seize Kingdom opportunities
- I walk in boldness, excellence and confidence everywhere He sends me
- Whatever the Lord says do, I do it and I do not delay
- I am ready to preach truth, minister healing and advance the Kingdom
- I rejoice that God counted me faithful to the call

Scripture: Rom 6:13

- I refuse to yield my body and mind to compromise and unrighteousness
- Sin has no jurisdiction, no ownership or authority over my body parts

- I forbid my eyes, my hands, my tongue or my feet to be used for darkness
- I am free from every fleshly habit today
- I declare that my body will not be loaned out for works of darkness
- It will be word way today for me
- I break all patterns and habits that I have allowed in my body
- I am spiritually alive from the dead through Jesus
- Dead works cannot rule over my life now
- Resurrection power now gives life to my flesh to live victoriously
- My old defeated identity is buried
- I identify with victory today
- The graveclothes of shame, fear and weakness are off my life
- I step out of every dead work and into divine life
- I yield my spirit, soul and body wholly to God's will today
- Consecration is far better than education
- I offer God my yes today!
- My agenda is yielded to His will and my plans are submitted to His voice
- God has unrestricted access to direct, lead and deploy me at a moment's notice
- Yielding to God is my daily worship
- I live fully surrendered and holding nothing back today
- Every part of my physical body is an instrument used for righteousness today
- My hands are instruments to minister healing, blessing and service to God's Kingdom
- My mouth is yielded as a weapon of righteousness today
- My feet are readied instruments carrying the gospel of peace today
- I am a weapon in God's hands against all the powers of darkness
- I yield to praise and put all feelings aside

Scripture: Luke 9:62

- I have put my hand to the plow in the Kingdom of God
- I am consecrated to do work in the Kingdom of God
- I will not release my grip or abandon my assignment
- My commitment to Jesus is wholehearted and fully engaged
- I am not a casual onlooker but a faithful laborer
- I do Kingdom work with excellence and urgency
- I count it an honor to be yoked with Jesus
- I refuse half hearted service and half stepping living

- I have shut the door on everything behind me
- The past has no hold over my direction or over my future
- This is today
- I will not look with desire at the things Jesus has delivered me from
- I refuse to let the world distract me from the path that is ahead
- I will not look back, slow down or second guess
- My eyes are fixed straight before me
- My focus is steadfast on the prize that is His high calling
- I maintain an undivided heart and an unwavering Kingdom focus
- My hand is on the plow and I am ready to work
- I ignore every voice of distraction
- I am never side-tracked with secondary matters
- I am declared fit and qualified for Kingdom service
- I am a faithful vessel, use me
- God qualified me for Kingdom use
- My Kingdom work and devotion will yield an eternal harvest
- I rejoice that my life can advance the Kingdom of God
